1. According to Article 10 of the Articles of the Association each EA Full member has one vote at the General Assembly (GA) meetings.

Pursuant to Article 9 of the Articles of Association and Paragraph 10 of the Rules of Procedure each EA MLA/BLA signatory has one vote at the Multilateral Agreement Council (MAC) regarding decisions affecting the MLA/BLA signatory status of an accreditation body.

Members (Eligible voters) can be represented by another person from its organisation or a person from another member eligible to vote and proxies can be used at GA and MAC meetings.

2. The vote shall be exercised by the person nominated by the member and identified in the attendance list for the meeting. Alternatively, it can be exercised by a person nominated in a proxy form (see Annex) submitted by the member.

The proxy form shall carry the signature of the person to whom the proxy is given.

The proxy shall be lodged with the Secretariat no later than four hours before the start of the meeting agenda item for voting.

Proxy forms are circulated with the agenda and related papers distributed before the meetings of the General Assembly. They can also be obtained at the Secretariat.

Used proxy forms shall be kept at the secretariat according the legal requirements.
